

M'MAHON BROTHERS STILL IN CUSTODY

Three Informations Are Filed Against One Who Confessed His Crime.

Kansas City, Oct. 27.—James McMahon, the self-confessed triple murderer, was today charged in three informations filed in the city court in Kansas City, Kan., by County Prosecutor Taggart, with having killed Margaret Van Royen and Rose McMahon, his sisters, and Alonzo R. Van Royen, his brother-in-law.

Following this action, Under Sheriff Brady started for Lansing, Kan., with the warrant for the man's arrest.

According to the prosecution, no charge will be preferred against Patrick McMahon, whom James exonerated from all blame, or against Patrick Lamb, the hired man, whose statements to the authorities led to the arrest of the McMahons.

Patrick Lamb was released from custody by the authorities tonight. He admitted telling several falsehoods to help James McMahon establish his innocence of the crime prior to his confession. Lamb will be a witness at the trial.

The McMahon brothers are still at Lansing. They likely will be returned to the jail in Kansas City, Kan., in a few days.

While James McMahon was sitting in the sheriff's office in Kansas City, Kan., late yesterday telling how he murdered his two sisters and his brother-in-law last week, a letter was delivered to the county prosecutor which advanced the theory that James McMahon was the murderer of the three victims.

It was dated Oct. 25, and signed L. W. Chelley, Frankfort, Kan. The letter contained the exact details that were confessed to by McMahon. Many of the officers declare it is an instance of clairvoyance.

LETTERS OFFERED AS GOOD EVIDENCE

Proof Piling Up Against the Monopolistic American Ice Company.

New York, Oct. 27.—Extracts from letters written by officials of the American Ice company to agents and customers were read in court today as evidence that the company was guilty of illegal monopoly in its dealings with independent producers and retailers.

"Our opponents are steadily weakening and are very much worried," wrote President Oler to R. F. Hopkins of the Boston Ice company, in June, 1904, according to one letter.

"The ice men here are sick unto death and full of anxieties," was an extract read from another letter sent by Mr. Oler to Walter Lee, manager of the company's Pennsylvania branch, three months later. "I think we are in a position to expect our advice to be heeded and our directions followed," the letter continued. A letter written by Mr. Oler to J. W. Richards of the John Hancock Ice company of Philadelphia said:

"The time has not yet come to get excited over the ice situation. We do not want to inflame the public mind so early in the season. Later on it may be wise to do so."

Another letter from Mr. Oler to a customer in Newport News said the company controlled 99 per cent of the Maine output. The state's attorneys presented evidence to show that the American Ice company, in order to enforce famine prices, "put the knife into the Maine ice industry, keeping the crop down to a minimum and allowing most of its ice houses in Maine to rot and fall down."

SIX SURVIVORS OF WRECKED STEAMER

Rescued Men Were in the Rigging of the Hestia Thirty-Eight Hours.

Eastport, Me., Oct. 27.—The six men who, half starved and numb from exposure, were rescued from their perilous position in the rigging of the stranded steamer Hestia yesterday, are believed tonight to be the only survivors of the 41 men and boys who were aboard the Donaldson liner when she struck the jagged Old Proprietor ledge, Seal Cove, Grand Manan Island, Monday morning.

Three bodies came ashore on the southwest shore of Nova Scotia today, two in a boat which drifted on the beach near Yarmouth, and the third in another boat which was found near Salmon river.

Recovering somewhat from their experience, the rescued men were able to give more definite information regarding what took place after the steamer went on the ledge. Third Mate Stewart said the Hestia reached the end of her voyage

Difficult Breathing

"I could not lie on either side, my heart fluttered, and I was so weak I could scarcely walk. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy did wonders for me. I can sleep, eat, and do more work than I have in ten years."

AGNES LEWIS, Lawrence, Kans. Short, quick breath—when going up stairs, singing, or when you are angry or excited means that your heart action is weak.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is a safe, sure remedy for these symptoms. It strengthens and builds up the weakened nerves and muscles.

The first bottle will benefit; if not, your druggist will return your money.

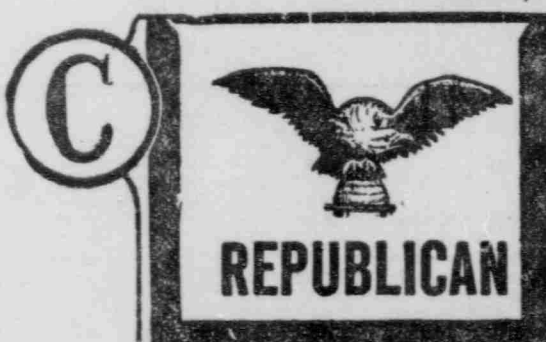

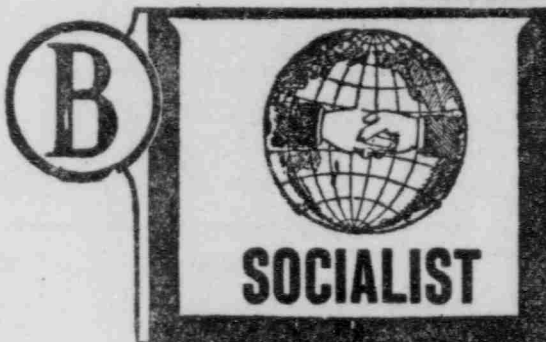

Assessment No. 1.

P. C. LIME AND STONE COMPANY, principal place of business Salt Lake City, Utah. Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the directors, held on the 21st day of October, 1909, an assessment of the per share was levied on the capital stock of the corporation, payable immediately to J. ## FIRST OF HER SEX IN UNITED STATES

Wife of Army Officer a Passenger in Government Aeroplane.

College Park, Md., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Van Deman, wife of Captain Ralph C. Van Deman, Twenty-first infantry, U. S. A., occupied the passenger's seat beside Wilbur Wright when he ascended in the government aeroplane here today. For four minutes she experienced the sensation of soaring in the air, sometimes as high as 80 feet above the ground.

This was the first time a woman had ascended in a heavier-than-air machine in the United States, the Wright brothers having resisted a multitude of feminine importunities for aerial excursions.

"Oh," exclaimed Mrs. Van Deman when she returned to the ground, "now I know what makes the birds sing."

Lieutenants Lahm and Humphreys had so far progressed with their mastery of the government's aeroplane today that just before the closing of the afternoon's work Wilbur Wright allowed the two officers to oversee all details in the management of the machine prior to their ascension. They made a successful ascent, but after being in the air three minutes the machine descended rather suddenly in a remote part of the field. One of the supporting wires had given away and upon hearing it snap the officers promptly pulled the lever to make a landing. The damage was trifling.

His pupils have progressed so far that

RUMOR HAS IT THAT JOHN M. DAVIS WILL RESIGN

Rumors have been current for some time past that John M. Davis, general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line in Salt Lake, would resign and go to the Southern Pacific. These reports again became current yesterday, but none of the Short Line officials would confirm them.

Mr. Davis was not in the city, and at General Manager W. H. Bancroft's office it was said that nothing had been heard of Davis' resignation.
